

I benefit from listening to the XM radio local traffic and weather, especially when I travel. If the local radio stations want to keep my attention, then they need to improve their services to match XM. It's a simple question of the best value to me.

-Robert K. Craig, PE